

*2007 Waterwheel Memsie Shiraz
Cabernet Sauvignon Malbec Petit
Verdot, Bendigo, A$14/NZ$18*

Peter Cumming's Waterwheel wines consistently deliver quality and extraordinary value for money. His latest Memsie red is no exception. Its deep, garnet colour gives the first indication of its worth, with an intense, savoury bouquet of a compote of dark berry fruit, sun-warmed bricks and a sniff of aniseed and eucalypt. It's a bold and powerful wine for such a modest price, delivering all that's offered on the nose. PB
